Amended and approved at the Second Meeting of the Second Board of Directors on December 7, 2011

Number of places: Based on the annual alumni donation amount.

Amount: Not to exceed NT$50,000 per student.

Eligibility:

1. Department students, including undergraduate, master's, and doctoral students, who are unable to afford registration fees, living expenses, and other expenses during their studies may apply.
2. Applicants must have a passing grade point average in each academic year; no grade point average is required for freshmen.
3. Please specify the amount of financial aid required based on your individual circumstances, but the amount remaining after deducting student loans and other scholarships will be considered.
4. Priority will be given to applicants from financially disadvantaged or high-risk households, including those experiencing sudden family hardship, unemployment, or single-parent situations.
5. Others in urgent need.

Application Procedure:

Applicants who meet the financial aid requirements should submit their application to the Department of Physics by the published application date, along with the following documents. Special circumstances may apply at any time.

Application Materials:

1. Application Form.
2. Transcripts from university and above.
3. Self-introduction (including family status, study plans, and financial aid needs).
4. Copies of the most recent family tax returns (or other documents sufficient to demonstrate family financial status).
5. Letter of Willingness (i.e., a post-graduation contribution plan).
6. Other documents for review.
